COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearly on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

J. T. Pieratt, of your town, was visiting Harrison Swango Sunday.

Lark Lowe, of Consolation, was in this neck of the woods Saturday.

R. A. Childers and wife, of Maytown, were very pleasant callers at our Springs Friday.

Miss Fern, little daughter of W. P. Cecil and wife, now of Hazel Green, had a very pleasant visit with us part of last week.

H. H. Swango attended the Sunday school at the Caskey school house Sunday, and thinks they have a growing school.

Misses Ava Swango and Eliza James, of Hazel Green, were buggy riding out this way Sunday. They had some Kash with them, but with that they came near losing their ride home.

Our large wide-a-wake Sunday school at Daysboro, received two very interesting and encouraging talks Sunday, given by J. W. Taulbee and Rev. Harlan McClure, of Grassy.

J. R. Bascon and J. G. Rice who have been guests at the Springs for the past two weeks left Friday for their homes at Sharpsburg. They were greatly benefited by the water and regreted to leave very much.

May 28. Uno.

SUNNY SIDE.

Callie Taulbee gave us a brief business call Monday.

Edward Oney spent Sunday afternoon at Daysboro.

Mrs. T. K. Pike, who has been visiting her mother for some weeks past, returned home Friday.

Miss Callie Taulbee accompanied brother Pike to Pine Grove Saturday, returning Sunday.

We wish to return our most sincere thanks to Grant Lacy for a nice photograph of "Dewey." We shall keep this great captain in grateful remembrance of the donor.

J. W. Taulbee and daughter returned home from Clay City, Friday, and reports an enjoyable time at district conference. Preaching most excellent, most especially the sermon by Rev. H. C. Morison.

This is examination week, and our letter will necessarily be short, as we are so very busy. Our school is nearing a close, and we are beginning to feel sad; the thought of being parted from our teachers and school mates is very trying.

May 28. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

MORCAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

J. M. Wallace and wife were shopping in Daysboro Saturday.

John L. Furgeson was the guest of Wm. Blankenship last Saturday.

E. F. Cecil made a flying trip to Mt. Sterling last week on business.

Barney Blankenship filled his appointment at South Liberty on last Saturday and Sunday.

S. H. Elam visited on Johnson Friday, and was accompanied home by his mother, Mrs. Leander Elam.

Quite a crowd took dinner with E. T. Lee and wife Sunday. Tom says he likes for his friends to come.

A. J. Blankenship and brother Hiram went to Lee City Thursday to see their brother-in-law, Jack Miller, who was shot at that place last week.

GREAT SALE —A T— PUBLIC AUCTION:

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will, as Trustee in Bankruptcy of WILLIAM M. CLARK, beginning on

MONDAY, JUNE 4, 1900,

In the town of HAZEL GREEN, KY., at the store of H. F. Pieratt or the store room on the corner, at the hour of 10 O'Clock, a. m., proceed to offer at public auction the stock of goods formerly owned by Wm. M. Clark. Said stock will be sold at auction at retail, piece by piece, and the groceries by the pound, the purchaser being allowed to take any quantity he desires at the option of the undersigned Trustee. Said stock consists of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Notions, Queensware, Patent Medicines, Harness, Saddlery, Hardware, etc., being the kind of goods usually kept in a country store. This is not an old stock, none of the goods being on hand over six months. This is the opportunity now for you to buy goods at your own price and in as large or small quantities as you desire. Sale will continue from day to day until completed. Terms of sale will be for CASH IN HAND.

For any further information call on JOHN H. PIERATT, at Hazel Green, or write to the undersigned at Mt. Sterling, Ky.,
HENRY S. WOOD,
R. A. CHILES, Atty. Trustee in Bankruptcy of Wm. M. Clark, Bankrupt.

JOHN H. PIERATT, Auctioneer.

Cal Cundiff and family were the guests of their parents, W. J. Wallace and wife, Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Wallace and sister Bertha, visited their grandparents, R. M. Cecil and wife, on Stillwater, from Friday till Sunday.

Volney Oldfield is spending a few days on Blackwater this week the guest of his grandfather, Uncle Reese Oldfield.

Little Ida Blankenship received a very painful wound last week by falling from the fence, almost dislocating her arm at the elbow. She is resting easy at this writing.

May 28. EINNIM.

MAYTOWN MISSES.

Miss Mina Nickell is on the sick list this week.

Did you see the eclipse of the sun last Monday?

Hansford Justice was visiting friends in town last week.

James Bolin, of Jackson, is visiting relatives in town this week.

J. A. Eaton, the photographer, is having much success at his work.

Uncle John Adams, our worthy minister, preached us an able sermon last Sunday.

Mrs. Alex. Patrick was taken suddenly ill on Friday last, and has been suffering much since.

Mrs. Rebecca Richie and little daughter, Hazel, were visiting Edgar Kash and family last week.

Mr. Curtin, who has been confined to his home for sometime with la grippe, is able to be out again.

Misses Lizzie and Minnie Henry and Miss Jennie Nickell, of near Pomeroyton, attended church at this place last Sunday.

N. B. Lyons and wife and little son Corbett, and Mrs. W. P. Sample and son Charlie, have returned from a visit to E. B. and R. E. May and families.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of attending a pound party at the home of Uncle John and Aunt Zephie Adams on last Saturday evening, and to say we enjoyed ourselves would be putting it lightly. Quite a number of the good people of our town were present, and many nice presents they received from the aged down to the little children. They brought from one to twenty-five pounds. We can't speak in too high terms of Brother Adams and wife, and wish them many, many more happy pound parties.

May 28. LEOLENE.

OUR NATURAL BRIDGE.

BY KELLY KASH.

As we view all the wonders of nature
Unbowed in clusters around,
No sight in our land can be greater
No lovelier place be found.

This arch of stone arising
Above other rivals so high,
Of beauty and wonder comprising
A thought for one passing by.

In thinking our thoughts will blunder,
And our hearts for it often repine;
It is to man a wonder,
And of nature a grand combine.

To lurk from the spring to the fountain,
And drink from the rising stream,
To view from the glen to the mountain
Is a mystical pleasant dream.

The bridge in old Virginia
Where Washington carved his name,
May lead in paths of glory
Made great by our father of fame.

But this sculpture of natural form
Surrounded by others so great,
Can give unto man such a charm,
And to nature a grand estate.

The sculptor who fashioned the arch,
And gave it the touch of his hand,
Leads man in his pilgrimage march
To a higher and holier land.

He who leads the brooklet so true
As it ripples in silence along,
Guides man in his pathway anew
To the lull of the rivulet's song.

Great bridge, thou art silent and still,
Yet a lesson thy silence has taught,
That man is a slave to his will
And rushes for treasures of naught.

Letter From Texas.

GRAVIS, TEXAS, May 17, 1900.

Well, Spencer Cooper, the editor of the dear old HERALD, if you will allow me space, I will write a few lines. Perhaps some one would love to hear from me, but would be sorry to hear of the death of my daughter, Lona. She died on the 12th inst. She had lung trouble. She was 18 years, 4 months and 15 days old. She never had good health. I know she is better off, but I hated to give her up, for she was so much company to us. I want all of my friends to bear with me in my trouble, and pray that I may hold out faithful to the end. I would love to see all of my old neighbors and friends around and about Hazel Green, Ky., as that place feels near and dear to me. I will send my best wishes to you all.

Uncle Remus, I saw the death of Willie Vest in THE HERALD. Was that your son or not?

This leaves us all well at present, and hoping this will find all my friends the same.

Also the death of two of my grandchildren, Quillie, the daughter of Isa Harper, died Feb. 23, 1900, 2 years old, of pneumonia. Dorsa, a son of J. B. Harper, died March 12th, 6 years old.

It has been very wet here last winter and spring. There has been a great deal of sickness here in this part of Texas.

Success to the dear old Hazel Green HERALD. Yours truly,
J. S. HARPER.

Why shouldn't Corbett go to Congress? He would feel at home there as would any other prize fighter in a place where it is all talk and no fight.

Send in your job work, we will give you satisfaction.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can vote intelligently unless he thinks intelligently. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intelligent thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service exceeds that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidate discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Events of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

Administrator's - Notice.

All persons indebted to the late Samuel W. Cecil, deceased, are hereby notified that they must present their claims, properly proven, on or before the first day of June, 1900, or the same will be barred. And all who are indebted to the said decedent or his estate must pay up on or before the day and date above given or suit will be instituted against them.

Given under my hand this first day of May, A. D. 1900.

BOSS CROKER, Tammany and the democrats of New York generally are red hot for the nomination of William Jennings Bryan at Kansas City. Hon. Bourke Cockran, than whom there is not a more fluent speaker in America today, has announced his intention of speaking for Bryan and the ticket without remuneration of any sort whatsoever, and other speakers, not so popular but possibly as effective, have signified their intention of doing likewise. The outlook is brighter than ever for Bryan and democratic victory, and if things go on in the same even tenor his victory will be a landslide.

JUDGE PARKER, of the New York supreme bench, is mentioned as probable vice president on the ticket to be nominated at Kansas City on the Fourth of July, but there is not much enthusiasm about the announcement. Bryan is the apple of the eye with the great mass of the democratic party, and the second place sinks into insignificance by reason of the prestige he has for first place.

BRYAN grows stronger as the time for the national convention at Kansas City approaches, and it now looks like the proceedings of that body will simply be in the nature a ratification meeting, he having, to all intents and purposes, been practically nominated by the democratic party.

THE centralization of capital and the tread of the trusts will assuredly bring ruin to this country as that cream makes cheese, unless they be soon checked. Socialism, anarchy and revolution are breeding from these causes, and the country must ultimately collapse.

WHILE the people of the country generally seem to be in sympathy with the Boers in their struggle for independence, President McKinley received the Boer commissioners more like they were bores than anything else. He's English, you know.

THE Porto Rican policy of President McKinley has made enemies for him of an element in his party that will have the effect of materially lessening his chances for the presidency.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

Mr. Clark, of Montana, has made up his mind that the senate cannot take a joke.

The Sultan refuses even to pay his respects, and Secretary Hay is wondering what he is going to do about it.

It is about time that Secretary Hay should decide what he is going to do about it. The Sultan doesn't seem to care much.

The president has assured the Boer delegates that he will do anything in the world that is within the limits of his power for them except to help them.

What is the use of making all this trouble about a little thievery in Cuba? Rathbone was merely trying to run things as he ran Hanna's campaign in Ohio a few years ago.

Suppose Cubans had been guilty of the Cuban persecutions? What wonderful editorials we should have had on the subject of their inability to govern their island honestly.

Some three years ago, Mr. Hanna in a public speech, declared that this was to be a business administration. Who will question that he was right? It is business—strictly business, in fact.

Thirty-two thousand dollars a mile for a railway in Cuba over level ground, with no expense for right of way, is coming it a little too strong, even if, as Assistant Secretary Micklejohn says, the cost "has been paid out of the island revenues."

Rathbone has been "suspended." His threat that he would make revelations concerning Mark Hanna's election to the senate doubtless saved him from being dismissed and arrested, as other not more guilty men have been.

If the Boer delegates are satisfied with a "jolly," that is the sort of thing that McKinley will give them. But if they want a resolution of sympathy, such as the United States has already extended to struggling nations, they will get the Klondike face instead.

Has there ever been a more contemptible piece of work than the veiled warning sent out by the administration that "if the Boer delegates agitated too much, Secretary Hay might be unable to receive them, even unofficially, and therefore their plans would be neutralized?" Secretary Hay knows full well that he is determined to do nothing for the Boers, and that their only hope is in bringing pressure to bear upon President McKinley's weak backbone and to put the fear of losing votes into his soul.

Amazing reports come from the Philippines. Secretary Root has refused to accept the resignations of seven officers and it is stated that General McArthur has 200 more in his hands, and that the enlisted men are very near mutiny over the work required of them. It is said too that the hundreds of Filipinos reported killed are merely guessed at, as their bodies are almost never found. This is a pretty state of affairs.

Of course, the Cuban scandal is entirely confined to the civilian appointees and the war department is innocent. Of course it is. But still we should really like to have some further information as to that $30,000 a mile railway.

It now seems that the circulation of the United States is only about $20 per capita instead of $26. It's lucky that Cleveland was a gold bug and kept this knowledge from the country during the last election.

Now that the ice trust has really gotten to work, the meaning of trusts is being rapidly brought home to the people, and will continue to be brought home with every day of the summer.

John Higgins, of above Lee City, was in town Saturday night and over Sunday. He attended the dance and cake cutting at Dob Higgins. John will move back to Hazel Green the last of this week, and occupy the property of the Rev. J. T. Pieratt, and will be found at his old position with H. F. Pieratt.

Rev. Henry Adams is holding a protracted meeting four miles below Frenchburg this week.

FOR SALE—A scholarship in the Commercial College of Kentucky University. By early application at this office some young man can save several dollars.

1,000,000 DEATHS! FROM CHOLERA DURING THE PAST YEAR.

The Germs of this Fatal Disease are Lurking Everywhere! Thousands of Dollars Saved by This Wonderful Discovery.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars has been lost in the poultry business on account of the devastation among the flocks caused by cholera, croup, gape and other fatal diseases. There have been many remedies advanced, but none seem to be so successful as the American Poultry Mixture. This will cure chickens in the last stage of cholera and roup, and is excellent for gapes. Do your fowls suffer from violent diarrhea, dropping of the wings, stupor or excessive thirst? These are the first symptoms of cholera. Cholera is a germ disease and being infectious spreads rapidly through the entire flock. Take time by the forelock; don't stop to experiment with unreliable or untried remedies. Use this mixture at once and the sanitary measures they recommend in connection. Don't give the fowls up. Cholera is a terrible disease but this remedy cures it every time. It is also guaranteed for roup, which can be told by hoarse breathing, swelled eyes, discharge at the nostrils, resembling catarrh. Fifty dollars is offered for any case the Mixture will not cure. If some of your fowls are diseased it will prevent the rest from catching it. Try it. It is cheap, reliable and effective; a scientific preparation, goes more than three times as far as any other remedy; does more good than all of them combined. It is used and endorsed by the most experienced and largest breeders of plain and fancy poultry in all parts of the world. The manufacturers guarantee every package or refund purchase money. If your druggist don't sell American Poultry Mixture, he's behind the age. In that case send $1.00 for sample box to American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind.

COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearly on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SWANGO SPRINGS SAYINGS.

J. T. Pieratt, of your town, was visiting Harrison Swango Sunday.

Lark Lowe, of Consolation, was in this neck of the woods Saturday.

R. A. Childers and wife, of Maytown, were very pleasant callers at our Springs Friday.

Miss Fern, little daughter of W. P. Cecil and wife, now of Hazel Green, had a very pleasant visit with us part of last week.

H. H. Swango attended the Sunday school at the Caskey school house Sunday, and thinks they have a growing school.

Misses Ava Swango and Eliza James, of Hazel Green, were buggy riding out this way Sunday. They had some Kash with them, but with that they came near losing their ride home.

Our large wide-a-wake Sunday school at Daysboro, received two very interesting and encouraging talks Sunday, given by J. W. Taulbee and Rev. Harlan McClure, of Grassy.

J. R. Bascon and J. G. Rice who have been guests at the Springs for the past two weeks left Friday for their homes at Sharpsburg. They were greatly benefited by the water and regreted to leave very much.

May 28. Uno.

SUNNY SIDE.

Callie Taulbee gave us a brief business call Monday.

Edward Oney spent Sunday afternoon at Daysboro.

Mrs. T. K. Pike, who has been visiting her mother for some weeks past, returned home Friday.

Miss Callie Taulbee accompanied brother Pike to Pine Grove Saturday, returning Sunday.

We wish to return our most sincere thanks to Grant Lacy for a nice photograph of "Dewey." We shall keep this great captain in grateful remembrance of the donor.

J. W. Taulbee and daughter returned home from Clay City, Friday, and reports an enjoyable time at district conference. Preaching most excellent, most especially the sermon by Rev. H. C. Morison.

This is examination week, and our letter will necessarily be short, as we are so very busy. Our school is nearing a close, and we are beginning to feel sad; the thought of being parted from our teachers and school mates is very trying.

May 28. SUSIE SUNBEAM.

MORCAN COUNTY.

CONSOLATION CHAT.

J. M. Wallace and wife were shopping in Daysboro Saturday.

John L. Furgeson was the guest of Wm. Blankenship last Saturday.

E. F. Cecil made a flying trip to Mt. Sterling last week on business.

Barney Blankenship filled his appointment at South Liberty on last Saturday and Sunday.

S. H. Elam visited on Johnson Friday, and was accompanied home by his mother, Mrs. Leander Elam.

Quite a crowd took dinner with E. T. Lee and wife Sunday. Tom says he likes for his friends to come.

A. J. Blankenship and brother Hiram went to Lee City Thursday to see their brother-in-law, Jack Miller, who was shot at that place last week.

GREAT SALE —AT— PUBLIC AUCTION:

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will, as Trustee in Bankruptcy of WILLIAM M. CLARK, beginning on

MONDAY, JUNE 4, 1900,

In the town of HAZEL GREEN, KY., at the store of H. F. Pieratt or the store room on the corner, at the hour of 10 O'Clock, a. m., proceed to offer at public auction the stock of goods formerly owned by Wm. M. Clark. Said stock will be sold at auction at retail, piece by piece, and the groceries by the pound, the purchaser being allowed to take any quantity he desires at the option of the undersigned Trustee. Said stock consists of Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Notions, Queensware, Patent Medicines, Harness, Saddlery, Hardware, etc., being the kind of goods usually kept in a country store. This is not an old stock, none of the goods being on hand over six months. This is the opportunity now for you to buy goods at your own price and in as large or small quantities as you desire. Sale will continue from day to day until completed. Terms of sale will be for CASH IN HAND.

For any further information call on JOHN H. PIERATT, at Hazel Green, or write to the undersigned at Mt. Sterling, Ky.,
HENRY S. WOOD,
R. A. CHILES, Atty. Trustee in Bankruptcy of Wm. M. Clark, Bankrupt.

JOHN H. PIERATT, Auctioneer.

Cal Cundiff and family were the guests of their parents, W. J. Wallace and wife, Saturday and Sunday.

Frank Wallace and sister Bertha, visited their grandparents, R. M. Cecil and wife, on Stillwater, from Friday till Sunday.

Volney Oldfield is spending a few days on Blackwater this week the guest of his grandfather, Uncle Reese Oldfield.

Little Ida Blankenship received a very painful wound last week by falling from the fence, almost dislocating her arm at the elbow. She is resting easy at this writing.

May 28. EINNIM.

MAYTOWN MISSES.

Miss Mina Nickell is on the sick list this week.

Did you see the eclipse of the sun last Monday?

Hansford Justice was visiting friends in town last week.

James Bolin, of Jackson, is visiting relatives in town this week.

J. A. Eaton, the photographer, is having much success at his work.

Uncle John Adams, our worthy minister, preached us an able sermon last Sunday.

Mrs. Alex. Patrick was taken suddenly ill on Friday last, and has been suffering much since.

Mrs. Rebecca Richie and little daughter, Hazel, were visiting Edgar Kash and family last week.

Mr. Curtin, who has been confined to his home for sometime with la grippe, is able to be out again.

Misses Lizzie and Minnie Henry and Miss Jennie Nickell, of near Pomeroyton, attended church at this place last Sunday.

N. B. Lyons and wife and little son Corbett, and Mrs. W. P. Sample and son Charlie, have returned from a visit to E. B. and R. E. May and families.

Ye scribe had the pleasure of attending a pound party at the home of Uncle John and Aunt Zephie Adams on last Saturday evening, and to say we enjoyed ourselves would be putting it lightly. Quite a number of the good people of our town were present, and many nice presents they received from the aged down to the little children. They brought from one to twenty-five pounds. We can't speak in too high terms of Brother Adams and wife, and wish them many, many more happy pound parties.

May 28. LEOLENE.

Ship your wool to Elkhorn Woolen Mills. They make the best blankets, coverlets, flannels, jeans, linsey, tweeds, satinetts, and yarns ever shipped to your section, and at less than it costs you to work your wool at home. OUR NATURAL BRIDGE.

BY KELLY KASH.

As we view all the wonders of nature
Unbowed in clusters around,
No sight in our land can be greater
No lovelier place be found.

This arch of stone arising
Above other rivals so high,
Of beauty and wonder comprising
A thought for one passing by.

In thinking our thoughts will blunder,
And our hearts for it often repine;
It is to man a wonder,
And of nature a grand combine.

To lurk from the spring to the fountain,
And drink from the rising stream,
To view from the glen to the mountain
Is a mystical pleasant dream.

The bridge in old Virginia
Where Washington carved his name,
May lead in paths of glory
Made great by our father of fame.

But this sculpture of natural form
Surrounded by others so great,
Can give unto man such a charm,
And to nature a grand estate.

The sculptor who fashioned the arch,
And gave it the touch of his hand,
Leads man in his pilgrimage march
To a higher and holier land.

He who leads the brooklet so true
As it ripples in silence along,
Guides man in his pathway anew
To the lull of the rivulet's song.

Great bridge, thou art silent and still,
Yet a lesson thy silence has taught,
That man is a slave to his will
And rushes for treasures of naught.

Letter From Texas.

GRAVIS, TEXAS, May 17, 1900.

Well, Spencer Cooper, the editor of the dear old HERALD, if you will allow me space, I will write a few lines. Perhaps some one would love to hear from me, but would be sorry to hear of the death of my daughter, Lona. She died on the 12th inst. She had lung trouble. She was 18 years, 4 months and 15 days old. She never had good health. I know she is better off, but I hated to give her up, for she was so much company to us. I want all of my friends to bear with me in my trouble, and pray that I may hold out faithful to the end. I would love to see all of my old neighbors and friends around and about Hazel Green, Ky., as that place feels near and dear to me. I will send my best wishes to you all.

Uncle Remus, I saw the death of Willie Vest in THE HERALD. Was that your son or not?

This leaves us all well at present, and hoping this will find all my friends the same.

Also the death of two of my grandchildren, Quillie, the daughter of Isa Harper, died Feb. 23, 1900, 2 years old, of pneumonia. Dorsa, a son of J. B. Harper, died March 12th, 6 years old.

It has been very wet here last winter and spring. There has been a great deal of sickness here in this part of Texas.

Success to the dear old Hazel Green HERALD. Yours truly,
J. S. HARPER.

Why shouldn't Corbett go to Congress? He would feel at home there as would any other prize fighter in a place where it is all talk and no fight.

Send in your job work, we will give you satisfaction.

THE BEST

Food for Intellectual Thought.

No man can vote intelligently unless he thinks intelligently. In this time of "wars and rumors of wars" the greatest aid to intelligent thinking and the best food for intelligent thought is that newspaper which is greatest and best.

Important political issues are daily growing more important. An intelligent understanding of the policy of a nation or a great political party is something to be desired, and it is the duty of every citizen to thoroughly inform himself upon the leading topics of the day.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is the greatest and best of all newspapers. Its telegraphic and cable news service exceeds that of any other paper. It prints the news fully; not imaginative occurrences, but domestic and world-distant, fully authenticated facts.

The policies of the great political parties are now being formed and the candidate discussed. Now is the time to subscribe for the best medium of keeping in touch with the whole world—THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC.

No less worthy of attention is THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine. It is replete each issue with the best of special articles written by the best of literary talent. Its beautiful half-tone illustrations have already made it famous and their quality and quantity will be preserved.

News features of absorbing attraction are illustrated and enlarged upon in a manner equal to the high priced magazines. Events of current interest are set forth in entertaining style. There is humor in its pages, too, and for the benefit of the ladies the latest Paris fashions are each week exquisitely illustrated and described. THE REPUBLIC'S Sunday Magazine is standard.

The subscription price of THE SEMI-WEEKLY REPUBLIC is $1.00 per year. THE REPUBLIC Sunday Magazine $1.25 per year. Both papers are now being offered at the low price of $1.50 for one year. To secure this low rate both must be ordered and paid for at the same time. Address all orders to THE REPUBLIC, St. Louis, Mo.

Administrator's - Notice.

All persons indebted to the late Samuel W. Cecil, deceased, are hereby notified that they must present their claims, properly proven, on or before the first day of June, 1900, or the same will be barred. And all who are indebted to the said decedent or his estate must pay up on or before the day and date above given or suit will be instituted against them.

Given under my hand this first day of May, A. D. 1900.

BOSS CROKER, Tammany and the democrats of New York generally are red hot for the nomination of William Jennings Bryan at Kansas City. Hon. Bourke Cockran, than whom there is not a more fluent speaker in America today, has announced his intention of speaking for Bryan and the ticket without remuneration of any sort whatsoever, and other speakers, not so popular but possibly as effective, have signified their intention of doing likewise. The outlook is brighter than ever for Bryan and democratic victory, and if things go on in the same even tenor his victory will be a landslide.

JUDGE PARKER, of the New York supreme bench, is mentioned as probable vice president on the ticket to be nominated at Kansas City on the Fourth of July, but there is not much enthusiasm about the announcement. Bryan is the apple of the eye with the great mass of the democratic party, and the second place sinks into insignificance by reason of the prestige he has for first place.

BRYAN grows stronger as the time for the national convention at Kansas City approaches, and it now looks like the proceedings of that body will simply be in the nature a ratification meeting, he having, to all intents and purposes, been practically nominated by the democratic party.

THE centralization of capital and the tread of the trusts will assuredly bring ruin to this country as that cream makes cheese, unless they be soon checked. Socialism, anarchy and revolution are breeding from these causes, and the country must ultimately collapse.

WHILE the people of the country generally seem to be in sympathy with the Boers in their struggle for independence, President McKinley received the Boer commissioners more like they were bores than anything else. He's English, you know.

THE Porto Rican policy of President McKinley has made enemies for him of an element in his party that will have the effect of materially lessening his chances for the presidency.

EDITORIAL BRIEFS.

Mr. Clark, of Montana, has made up his mind that the senate cannot take a joke.

The Sultan refuses even to pay his respects, and Secretary Hay is wondering what he is going to do about it.

It is about time that Secretary Hay should decide what he is going to do about it. The Sultan doesn't seem to care much.

The president has assured the Boer delegates that he will do anything in the world that is within the limits of his power for them except to help them.

What is the use of making all this trouble about a little thievery in Cuba? Rathbone was merely trying to run things as he ran Hanna's campaign in Ohio a few years ago.

Suppose Cubans had been guilty of the Cuban persecutions? What wonderful editorials we should have had on the subject of their inability to govern their island honestly.

Some three years ago, Mr. Hanna in a public speech, declared that this was to be a business administration. Who will question that he was right? It is business—strictly business, in fact.

Thirty-two thousand dollars a mile for a railway in Cuba over level ground, with no expense for right of way, is coming it a little too strong, even if, as Assistant Secretary Micklejohn says, the cost "has been paid out of the island revenues."

Rathbone has been "suspended." His threat that he would make revelations concerning Mark Hanna's election to the senate doubtless saved him from being dismissed and arrested, as other not more guilty men have been.

If the Boer delegates are satisfied with a "jolly," that is the sort of thing that McKinley will give them. But if they want a resolution of sympathy, such as the United States has already extended to struggling nations, they will get the Klondike face instead.

Has there ever been a more contemptible piece of work than the veiled warning sent out by the administration that "if the Boer delegates agitated too much, Secretary Hay might be unable to receive them, even unofficially, and therefore their plans would be neutralized?" Secretary Hay knows full well that he is determined to do nothing for the Boers, and that their only hope is in bringing pressure to bear upon President McKinley's weak backbone and to put the fear of losing votes into his soul.

Amazing reports come from the Philippines. Secretary Root has refused to accept the resignations of seven officers and it is stated that General McArthur has 200 more in his hands, and that the enlisted men are very near mutiny over the work required of them. It is said too that the hundreds of Filipinos reported killed are merely guessed at, as their bodies are almost never found. This is a pretty state of affairs.

Of course, the Cuban scandal is entirely confined to the civilian appointees and the war department is innocent. Of course it is. But still we should really like to have some further information as to that $30,000 a mile railway.

It now seems that the circulation of the United States is only about $20 per capita instead of $26. It's lucky that Cleveland was a gold bug and kept this knowledge from the country during the last election.

Now that the ice trust has really gotten to work, the meaning of trusts is being rapidly brought home to the people, and will continue to be brought home with every day of the summer.

John Higgins, of above Lee City, was in town Saturday night and over Sunday. He attended the dance and cake cutting at Dob Higgins. John will move back to Hazel Green the last of this week, and occupy the property of the Rev. J. T. Pieratt, and will be found at his old position with H. F. Pieratt.

Rev. Henry Adams is holding a protracted meeting four miles below Frenchburg this week.

FOR SALE—A scholarship in the Commercial College of Kentucky University. By early application at this office some young man can save several dollars.

1,000,000 DEATHS! FROM CHOLERA DURING THE PAST YEAR.

The Germs of this Fatal Disease are Lurking Everywhere! Thousands of Dollars Saved by This Wonderful Discovery.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars has been lost in the poultry business on account of the devastation among the flocks caused by cholera, croup, gape and other fatal diseases. There have been many remedies advanced, but none seem to be so successful as the American Poultry Mixture. This will cure chickens in the last stage of cholera and roup, and is excellent for gapes. Do your fowls suffer from violent diarrhea, dropping of the wings, stupor or excessive thirst? These are the first symptoms of cholera. Cholera is a germ disease and being infectious spreads rapidly through the entire flock. Take time by the forelock; don't stop to experiment with unreliable or untried remedies. Use this mixture at once and the sanitary measures they recommend in connection. Don't give the fowls up. Cholera is a terrible disease but this remedy cures it every time. It is also guaranteed for roup, which can be told by hoarse breathing, swelled eyes, discharge at the nostrils, resembling catarrh. Fifty dollars is offered for any case the Mixture will not cure. If some of your fowls are diseased it will prevent the rest from catching it. Try it. It is cheap, reliable and effective; a scientific preparation, goes more than three times as far as any other remedy; does more good than all of them combined. It is used and endorsed by the most experienced and largest breeders of plain and fancy poultry in all parts of the world. The manufacturers guarantee every package or refund purchase money. If your druggist don't sell American Poultry Mixture, he's behind the age. In that case send $1.00 for sample box to American Mfg. Co., Terre Haute, Ind.
